

URBAN FORESTS

POLITICAL ECOLOGIES

CELEBRATING TRANSDISCIPLINARITY

April 18-20, 2013

Toronto, Canada

ufpe.ca

The first of its kind, this international three-day conference covers a wide range of issues related to urban forests, trees and greenspaces from political ecology perspectives.

Themes:

Historical Narratives
Urban Tree Cultures and Identities
Social Inclusion
Government and Governance
Urban Ecology Education
Adaptation and Vulnerability

Speakers include:

Dr. Joanna Dean
Carleton University, Canada

Dr. Nik Heynen
University of Georgia, USA

Dr. Owain Jones
University of Gloucestershire, UK

Dr. Roger Keil
York University, Canada

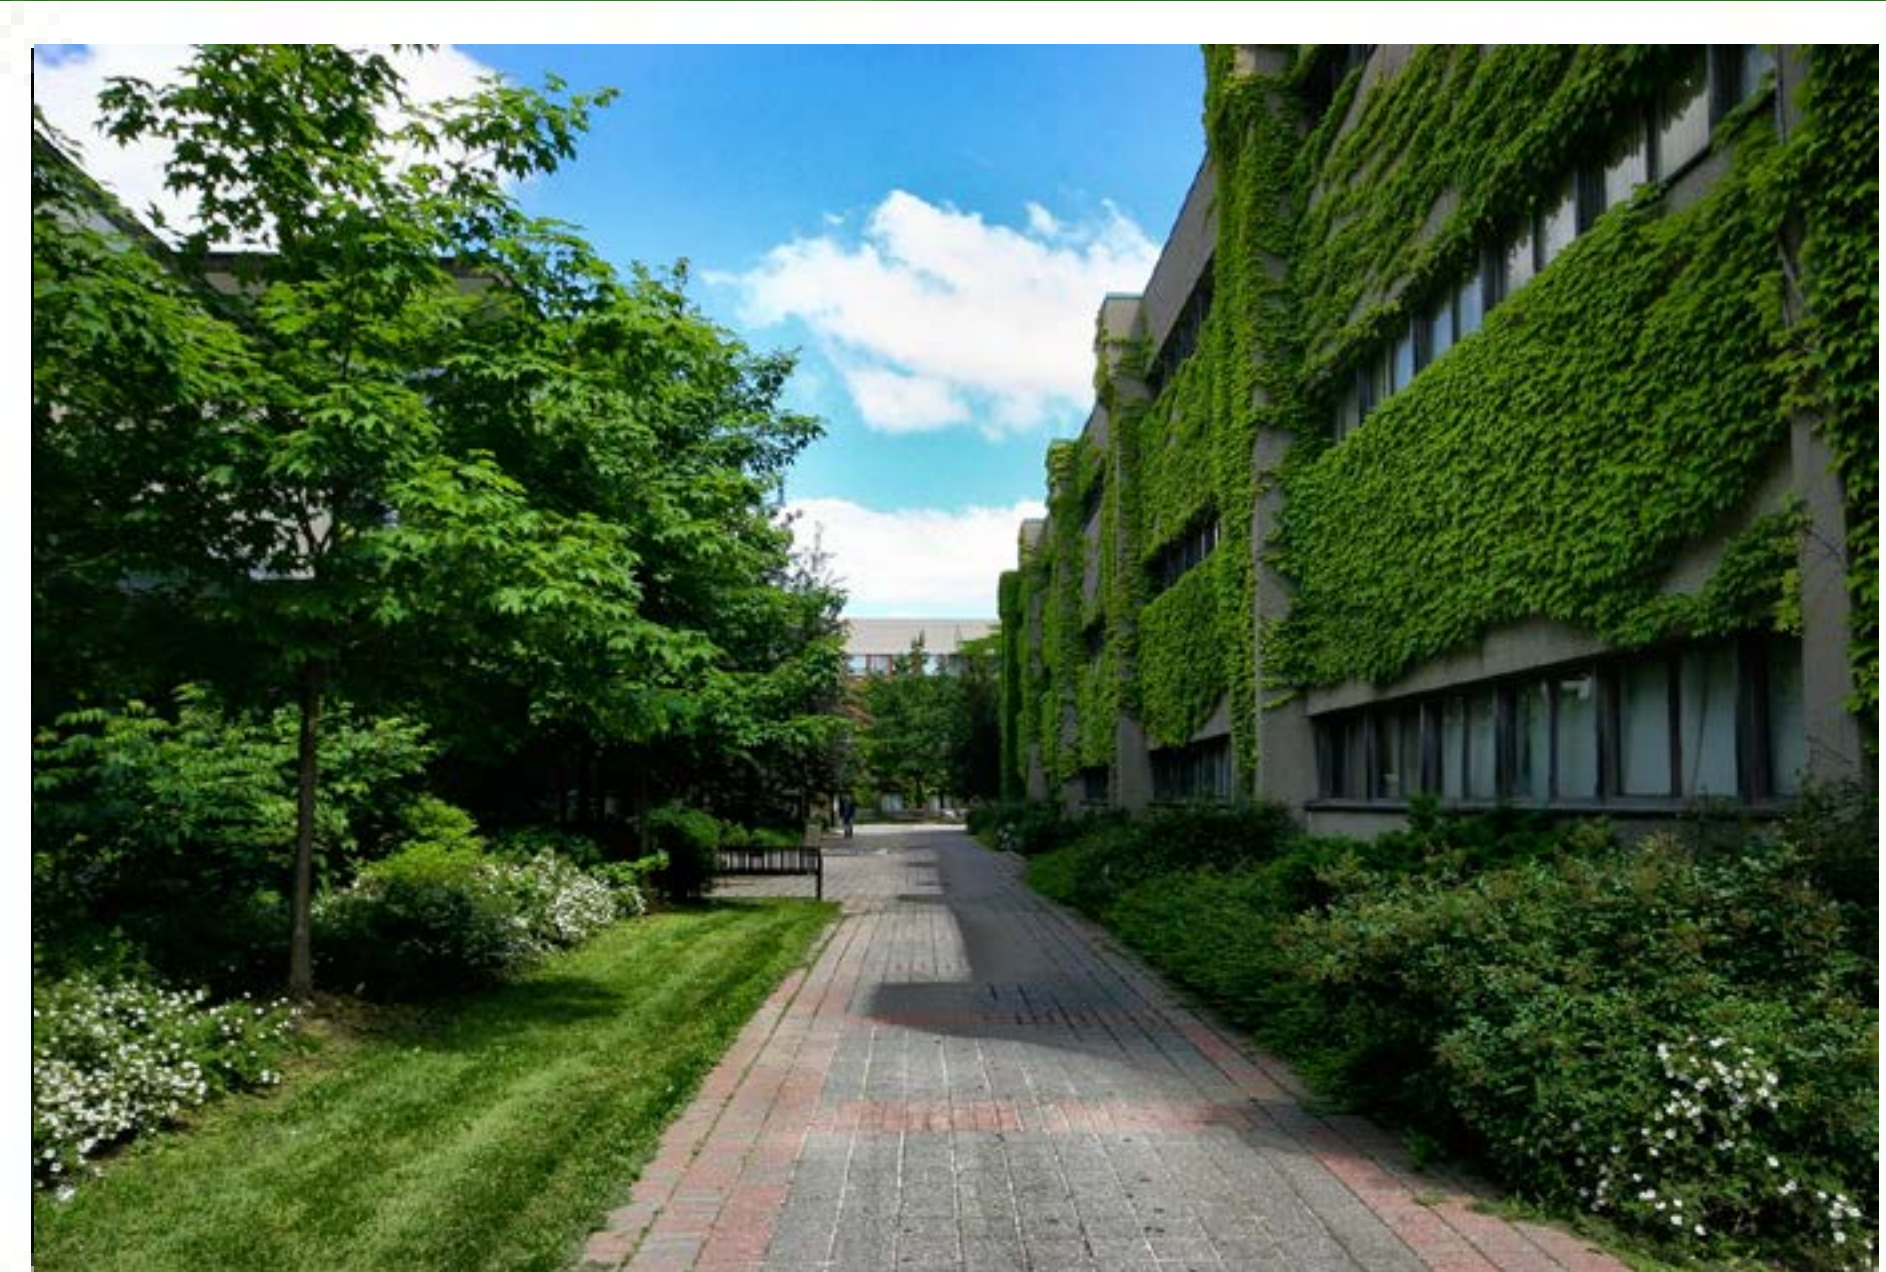

Dr. Cecil Konijnendijk
University of Copenhagen, Denmark

Dr. Faisal Moola
David Suzuki Foundation

Dr. Cate Sandilands
York University, Canada

Dr. Sandy Smith
University of Toronto, Canada

Dr. Greg Smith
Lewis & Clark College, USA

The conference, held at Hart House, University of Toronto, will include a special panel on Rouge Park, an art exhibit, as well as, field tours of the Humber Arboretum & Centre for Urban Ecology and the Alternative Campus Tour at York University.

Photo credits: Adrina Bardekjian

#ufpe13